PUBLIC REPORTING NOTES

This report covers the first quarter of 2026-27, with additional data from December 2025

This report provides a provincewide view of police oversight activity across Alberta during the first four months of the Police Review Commission's operations. It presents results from Dec. 1, 2025 to March 31, 2026, along with additional month-by-month reporting on submissions, complaints and closures during the same four-month timeframe.

By consolidating this information in a single, consistent format, the report establishes a shared point of reference for understanding activity across jurisdictions and creates a clearer picture of how the system under the PRC is operating in practice.

The PRC provides regular data reporting to police commissions to support local oversight and awareness. Quarterly reports bring together provincewide data, highlighting early observations and identifying trends where sufficient data exists.

While this report provides a strong foundation, it also marks the beginning of a broader and more detailed public reporting approach. As the system matures and more data becomes available, future reports will expand in scope to include deeper analysis, trends where appropriate, and outcomes. We provide additional details on planned enhancements to public reporting on Page 14 of this document.

MESSAGE FROM THE CEO

The PRC Data Report offers a clear look at police oversight in action across Alberta

Across Alberta, police oversight is now coming together under one system. For the first time, this report offers a provincewide snapshot of how that system is working in practice – and what a centralized approach can begin to deliver.

As the Police Review Commission continues to take shape, it is bringing together information, processes and perspectives that were once spread across the province. That is already creating a clearer, more consistent view of police oversight activity across Alberta. There is real value in that, and not just in what we can see today, but in how we can apply it.

By bringing oversight into one place, we are strengthening consistency across the province and setting clearer expectations for how matters are received, assessed and resolved.

Albertans need to know concerns will be handled fairly and independently. Police and peace officers need confidence that oversight is applied consistently, with actions assessed in context, and professionalism recognized alongside accountability.

This is early work. Many files are at the beginning of their lifecycle, and it will take time for the full picture to emerge. This report is a first step and a strong foundation for continued transparency, consistency and confidence in the system.

Michael Ewenson, KC
Interim CEO

POLICE OVERSIGHT IN ALBERTA

An introduction to the province's new independent, civilian-led police oversight agency

The Police Review Commission was established in December 2025 as an independent, civilian-led agency to address complaints about police conduct in Alberta while supporting transparency and accountability.

The PRC handles serious and sensitive incidents, statutory offences and police code of conduct matters. It includes the Alberta Serious Incident Response Team (ASIRT), which conducts independent investigations into potential criminal wrongdoing involving all police (including RCMP), peace officers and the Legislative Assembly Security Service.

The PRC assesses complaints, conducts investigations and determines outcomes, including disciplinary action. Its mandate is to strengthen public trust in law enforcement through clear, fair and objective oversight.

PROCESS AND 180-DAY TIMELINE

The 180-day timeline starts once a submission is categorized as a complaint

The PRC categorizes submissions into five levels to make sure each is addressed appropriately. Here’s how complaints are sorted:

Lvl.	Type	Auth.
1	Death, serious injury and serious / sensitive case for all Alberta police services (incl. RCMP), peace officers, Legislative Assembly Security Service	PRC ASIRT
2	Allegations of criminal / statutory offences that don't meet the criteria for Level 1, involving all police services in Alberta	PRC ASIRT
3	Breaches of the Police Conduct and Oversight Regulation – applicable to First Nation and municipal police services	PRC
4	Unsatisfactory employee performance. Complaints are referred to an officer's employer for resolution through internal processes	Involved Police
5	Policy or services of a police service. Complaints are referred to an officer's employer for resolution through internal processes	Involved Police

180-Day Timeline

During intake, submissions are reviewed to confirm completeness, jurisdiction and whether they meet the legislative requirements to be deemed a complaint. From that point, a file may move through several pathways before reaching a final disposition. These pathways can include investigation, alternative dispute resolution or other processes, depending on the nature and complexity of the issues involved.

Advancing a file requires information from multiple sources, including police services, complainants, subject officers and, in some cases, external agencies. Requests for records, interviews, legal considerations and coordination across organizations can take time. As a result, not all files will progress at the same pace within the reporting period.

The PRC makes reasonable efforts to complete investigations within 180 days, with files over this timeline reported publicly, as per regulation. The time needed to obtain information and make informed decisions means many files remain active as they move toward resolution and disposition.

ALBERTA AT A GLANCE

DEC. 1, 2025 TO MARCH 31, 2026

OVERVIEW: SUBMISSIONS

A provincewide view of submission volume, initiation methods and entry points

Overall, the data shows a system that is accessible and actively used by the public.

Submissions and complaints are concentrated in Calgary and Edmonton, which aligns with population distribution.

Most submissions are received through the online portal, representing about three-quarters of intake, while email and voicemail are used less frequently. These early results are consistent with pre-launch expectations and provide a foundation as the system continues to mature.

FUTURE REPORTING

This report establishes a baseline for a provincewide snapshot, with future reporting to build on it

Future reports will expand to include additional layers of analysis and detail. This will include further breakdowns of Level 4 and Level 5 complaints, more refined categorization of allegation types, and improved visibility into how cases are tracked across the Police Review Commission, including the Alberta Serious Incident Response Team, and individual police services.

Additional reporting will also provide greater insight into processing timelines, including time spent at intake, assessment, investigation and resolution stages.

Further enhancements will include monitoring and reporting on alternative dispute resolution activity, as well as expanded comparisons across services and over time. As more data becomes available, future reports will also provide clearer insight into dispositions and outcomes, helping to illustrate not only how cases are received, but how they are resolved.

At this stage, reporting reflects the data available within a new and evolving system. This progression is expected and is a key part of building a durable, transparent reporting framework.
